PUBLIC TRAINING SCHEDULE 2026

OFFSHORE CORROSION ASSESSMENT TRAINING (O- CAT) CERTIFICATION

The Offshore Corrosion Assessment Training (O-CAT) course teaches you how to assess corrosion protection systems used on fixed offshore platforms, perform inspection evaluations, identify safety hazards and critical corrosion areas, and apply industry-recognized inspection methods — including grading systems used for Level I facility reports.

Your registration includes certification exam access — both the practical field-oriented assessment administered as part of the course and the written certification exam delivered via computer-based testing.
